New York, March 16.—[By the Asociated Press.] The Italians of this city are very much excited over the New Orleans tragedy. One of the most prominent men among them said: "The Italians look at the matter in this light: Their countrymen were tried by a jury in an American court. The American jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. We simply intend to make an earnest protest sgainst the wholesale butchery of our countrymen. No body of Italians has ever committed such crimes."

Count Rasponi of the Italian legation in Paris expressed himself today in very strong terms on what he called the cruel massacre of his countrymen. He said Italy could not afford to let such an outrage on humanity go without redress and that it was a stain on the American people that could never be effaced. He added that in his own personal opinion it ended all prospect of Italy taking part in the Chicago exposition.

Among the Italian residents of London there is much excitement on the subject, and the killing is fiercely denounced. There is talk of a massing to request King Humbert to demand redress.

What Parkerson Says-The Mayor Glorifles the Deed. New York, March 16.—[By the Associated Press.] The Tribune has from New Orleans an interesting special giving interviews with William . Parkerson, the leader of the regulators, and others. Mr. Parkerson said, in substance, that he did not take the initiative in the matter: that a meeting was called, after the verdict was rendered in the room of a certain citizen, and that he (Parkerson) was made chairman. Again he was called upon on Saturday morning to act as spokesman at the meeting. He felt it was the most terrible duty he had ever was the most terrible duty be had ever undertaken; but it was the opinion of himself and others that the law had miscarried. When they addressed the crowd at the statue they said they were prepared to downatever the people desired. The populace shouted "Come on!" As they walked along people came from side streets and fell into the procession. Women were crying and men cheering. It was the most terrible thing he ever saw—the quiet determination of the crowd. They obeyed him (Parkerson) implicitly, just as if he were a military leader, the commander of a cause.

Said Parkerson "it is not a courage-ous thing to attack a man who is not armed, but we looked upon these men and the prisoners themselves had a champagne supper."

Mr. Parkerson said he did not regret the matter a bit. This was a greater emergency than had ever happened in New York, Cincinnati or Chicago. While the Mafia confined itself to killing its own members we did not resort to violence. But Hennessy's killing struck at the very root of American institutions. The intimidation of the Mafia and corruption of our juries and has pleased all of them. Indeed, he is more courted tonight than if he had won the Senatorship.

SACRAMENTO, March 16.—[By the Associated Press.] The ballot taken Mafia and corruption of our juries

Mafia and corruption of our juries were to be met only with strong measures. Moreover, I recognize no power above the people."

The Italian consul, Signor Corte, says the trouble was originally between two factions of the Mafia. He did not wish to fasten the blame for Saturday's killing upon anybody, but thought that grave responsibility rests with the Governor. Mayor and Sheriff. There are 20,000 Italians in New Orleans and 12,000 or ifteen thousand on the plantations around it, where they have replaced negroes. It is not true that they are all secondrels. Mayor Shakespear makes no bones about his feelings in the matter. He declared bluntly to the Tribune correspondent that Parkerson and the according did untificit. Turner testified that the Captain ordered him to take command of the company when it was ordered to go after the hostiles, as he was not feeling well. On another oc-casion when danger was apparent, Catley reported himself not well and unable to command, but when the duty was not dangerous he was on hand. Adjourned until tommorrow.

Rather a Thin Explanation. New York, March 16.—Before the Senate committee investigating the sugar trust today, William Dick could only account for the difference between the $1,000,000 at which he valued his interest, and the $2,762,000 which he received for it from the trust by saying that it must have been for the good will of the business. He could not, he said, remember the details of book-

Eight Democratic Legislators Ready to Sell their Votes.

De Young Warmly Praised for Withdrawing, and Already Named for the Next Term-Feiton's Chances of Winning.

By Telegraph to The Times. SACRAMENTO, March 16.—[Special.] The sensation tonight is the withdrawal of Hon. M. H. De Young, from the Senatorial race in favor of ex-Congressman Charles N. Felton. Although De Young gained one vote day and another of his friends was ab-sent he saw that he could not reach the Senate without a resort to the methods which he has denounced in It had also become others. well known on that eight Democrats were offering their votes for sale, which De Young and Felton refused to buy, and to head off this movement was one of his reasons for going to his weaker but honest rival. At midnight it looks as though balf of the Blanchard vote will go to Felton, and even if a stampede to bim does not follow it is believed that he will win unless some one buys the corrupt Democrats, though—the honest members of that party are declaring that they will in such a case vote for Felton.

Everybody, except the close adherents of Estee, is praising De Young tonight for his honest and magnanimous course, and on every side Republicans are declating in his favor for the Estee Gains Three Votes—De Young Holds His Strength. SACRAMENTO, March 16.—[By the Associated Press.] The ballot taken in joint session of the Legislature for United States Senator today resulted: Estee 37, De Young 24, Felton 14,

Blanchard 12, Perkins 1, Wetmore 1. This shows a gain over Saturday's vote of three for Estee, one for De Young and one for Felton, but as a number of members were then absent, the gain is only spparent, except in Estee's case, where a net gain of three is made. The Democrats cast their twenty-two votes for John P. Irish. The changes on this ballot were: Lynch from Blanchard to De Young, Lacy from Felton to Estee, Dray from Johnston to Estee, Bruner from John-ston to Blanchard, and Dennisson from Johnston to De Young. The president announced that 110 votes had been cast, and for a choice

rived, and everybody who visits the fair will be given a bouquet. Wild flowers are very scarce at present, and it is doubtful if there is another section on the coast that can produce such a fine collection.

Half the people in the San Gabriel Valley are expected to arrive today, and the joiliest time since the fair opened is promised during the afternoon and evening.

The various booths under the charge of Pasadena and San Gabriel will be handsomely decorated, and as today and tomorrow will be the last days of the fair, it is expected that the biggest crowds yet will be in attendance this evening and tomorrow. Quite a number of people have an idea that the fair closes tonight, but this is not the case. It will be closed tomorrow evening, when an extra programme will be carried out.

THE SENATORIAL PARTY. It will be remembered that the Senatorial party who accompanied the remains of the late Senator George Hearst to San Fran-party who accompanied the remains of the late Senator George Hearst to San Francisco, were invited by the managers of the fair to attend in a body. A dispatch was sent to Hoo. William H. Milla, president of the State Board of Trade, asking him to arrange the matter, and yesterday he telegraphed the following dispatch to Secretary Hanchette of the Chamber of Commerce, who is also superintendent of the fair:

"The Senators and Representatives in Congress, with the officers of the Senate and House of Representatives, and their lates, who accompanied the remains of the late Senator Hearst, will form an excursion party to Los Angeles, and they very much desire to see the citrus exhibition. I begained to the citrus fair, that the exhibition be kept intact until next Saturday, when the Commerce, through you, and to those in charge of the citrus fair, that the exhibition be kept intact until next Saturday, when the Congressional party arrives, even it the payilion is not kept open for visitors. If it could remain just as it is to show these influential strangers, it will be of advantage to the whole State. Please report to the manager of the exhibition, and the officers of your chamber, and answer that we may know it be a convenient and interesting part of their reception at your city."

At the meeting of the general committee of the citrus fair, which has been called for 10 o'clock this morning, some action will be taken in the matter, but it is doubtful if Mr. Mill's suggestion can be carried out as it will be not to impossible to keep the exhibit until Saturday as the rent of the hali amounts to considerable and there are other expenses. It is a great bity that the party cannot be in the city tomorrow at the closling.

The case of the Los Angeles Cemetery Association against the city, involving the title to First street along the south side of Evergreen cemetery has been decided by Judge Shaw of the Superior Court in favor of the city. Filed.

The City Attorney submitted the following report upon Broadway between Tenth and Twelfth streets.

THE BROADWAY OPENING. THE BROADWAY OPENING.
To the Honorable City Council of Los Angeles—Gentlemen: In regard to the question as to whether or not Fort street exists between Tenth and Twelfth streets, 1 have to report that this question has necesstated an exhaustive search of the city records, and in order to explain the reasons which have led to the conclusion arrived at it will be necessary to give a brief history of the facts.

it will be necessary to give a brief history of the facts.

From 1837 to 1849 we find considerable correspondence between the Mexican government and the city authorities in regard to a survey and map of the city's lands, but nothing was done until the latter year, and until after the change of flag, when, at the request of the city authorities for a competent surveyor, Lieut. E. O. Co.Ord was sent by the Government for the purpose of making a survey and map. The Mexican government having sanctioned a survey of the boundaries of the city in 1846, in which the survey and map. The Mexican government having sanctioned a survey of the boundaries of the city in 1846, in which all that was done was to measure two leagues "in the direction of the four winds from the Plaza Church," and set stakes as the boundary lines. Lieut, Ord was to make his survey and map correspond as hear as possible to these boundary lines. A committee was appointed by the Ayuntamiento (City Council) to confer with Lieut Ord as to the terms upon which he would make the survey, and in July of the same year a contract was entered into by which he agreed to survey and make a map of the city lands, dividing the unsold land into blocks bounded by streets, and also to show upon his map he vineyard lots, with all roads, streets, hills, zanjas and plazas.

In September 1849, this map, was presented to the City Council at a special session held for the purpose of receiving the same, and it was then accepted and Lieut. Ord paid $2000, for making the belonging to the city from the river to the hills and from the present Catholic Cemetery to Pico street. All of the lands below Main street heing shown as vineyard lots, while the property above Main street was subdivided into blocks bounded by streets. All of the lands below Main street was subdivided into blocks bounded by streets. All of the lands below Main street was subdivided into blocks bounded by streets. All of the lands below Main street was subdivided hit blocks bounded by streets. All of the lands below Main street was subdivided the blocks between the cemetery and Eighth-street were numbered and divided into lots which were also Lumbered. All of the present streets, including Fort street, are shown upon this map as having a uniform width and distance apart, Fort street extending from First street to a point beyond Twelfth street. This map was made for the purpose of suce, and is the only official map of the city for all the land deimeated upon it, which includes all of the business portion of the city, and all of the business portion of the city, and all of the lands shown upon it have been sold by reference thereto.

In June, 1857, the City Council passed an ordinance ordering that all streets shown on the Ord map south of Eighth street (which had not been numbered upon the map) should be numbered when the blocks bounded by the different streets described therein, should be numbered as therein directed. Among these were blocks 67, 68, 76, 83 and 44, which were numbered and described as follows:

"The block bounded by Tenth, Eleventh, Spring and Fort to be number 67." "The block bounded by Eleventh, Twelfth, Spring and Fort streets be number 67." "The block bounded by Eleventh, Twelfth, Spring and Fort streets be number 67." "The block bounded by Eleventh, Twelfth, Spring and Fort streets be number 67." "The block bounded by Tenth, Eleventh, Fort and Hill be numbered 5." "The block bounded by Twelfth, Pico, Fort and Hill to be No. 84," showing that the City Council recognized these streets, including Fort street, as extending from Tenth to Pico. All of the property below Eighth street was then the property below Eighth street when the property below Eighth street was then the property below Eighth street was then the property below Eighth streets, which were conveyed by unumbered as done on the Ord map, and also blocks 51 to 57 inclusive, which had been numbered as follow was not so conveyed, our was described as follows:

"Also that certain tract of Mind commencing at the western corner of Ninth street and New Main street, thence northwesterly along the southeast line of Grasshopper, thence southwesterly along the southeast line of Grasshopper to the northeast line of Twelfth street, thence along such line of Twelfth street to the northwest line of New Main street, and thence along such line of New Main street, and thence along such line of New Main street, the Ninth street, the place of beginning."

By this deed it will be observed that the clity conveyed to Mr. Childs all of the blocks between Main and Pearl and Ninth and Twefth, and attempted to convey all of Spring, Fort, Hill, Olive, Charity, Hope, Flower, Tenth, Eleventh and Tweith streets, as contained within those limits. The deed reserved the right however, to open Olive street from Ninth to Twelfth without compensation, except for growing crops thereou. Mr. Childs has since conveyed a portion of this land to different parties, and some of the deeds which I have seen from him contained a reservation that all of the streets through this tract, except Fort street, should be opened. The portions conveyed have been subdivided and as laid out Fort street is now only sixty feet wide between Ninth and Tenth street. When the City Council attempted to convey a portion of these streets it was probably thought that there would never he any public necessity for streets that far out of town, and that as Mr. Childs owned all of the property on both sides of the same he would be the only person interested in having the same opened or closed.

But any reason the Council might have had at that time does not alter the fact that they had no legals right to deed away sny portion of the streets. I was probably thought that there would never he apublic streets by the adoption of the Ord map, just as much as Fort street was between First and Second. Our Supreme Court has decided in Visalia vs. Jacob, (63 Cal., 434) "That after a street has b such owners, I think there is a moral obligation upon the city to do these parties justice, and that unless there is a greater public necessity shown for the opening of this street than I pow know of, that the isame should not be opened from Tenth to Twelfth streets.

HACK ORDINANCE. The Sewer Committee reported recommending that the City Attorney draft an ordinance keeping backs from standing in front of business houses on Spring street between Temple and Third streets. Councilman McGarry and Councilman Rees favored laying the report on the table. They both thought that the hacks were not in the way and they should be permitted to stand in front of any business building where there was no complaint made.

A motion to lay on the table was voted down by 4 to 4.

fore printed in THE TIMES were adopted.

The question of amending the report came up. Underprevious rulings, the Council could not amend a report of any committee. It could only be adopted or rejected.

Councilman Summerland, who was temporarily in the chair, ruled the amendment out of order under the ruling.

Councilman Nickell thought the previous ruling was wrong. The Council, when a committee reported, certainly had a right to amead any report made. He appealed from the decision of the chair.

Temporary President Summerland changed the precedent and ruled that the Council t

Temporary President Summerland changed the precedent and rufed that the Council could amend any report submitted to it by a committee or otherwise.

On motion of President Bossall the decision was affirmed as the rule of the Council in the future.

The Health Officer made the following report concerning the Arroyo de los Reyes, which was referred to the Sewer Committee:

The Council met at 2 o'clock with President Bonsall in the chair, and all the members present except Mr. Rees, who came in a few minutes late.

An ordinance was presented changing

An ordinance was presented changing the right-of-way of the electric road from Third to Fourth street, which passed under a suspension of the rules.

The special order for 20 clock, the hearing of protestants against the opening of Broadway, was taken up.

The City Attorney stated that under his report the whole matter was disposed of, but he thought action had better be postponed for at least two weeks, to see what could be done.

After some talk the matter was deferred for one week.

Councilman McGarry moved that the Council abandon the right to Broadway from Tenth to Pico, as the private interests far exceeded those of any public interest to be subserved.

On motion of Councilman Tufts, action on this motion was deferred for one week.

Angeles street—was called up.

Councilman Rees wanted the matter postponed for a week, but this was objected to, and after some talk the cierk proceeded with the reading of a number of typewritten protests. The protestants object to the report of the commission, on the ground that the district of assessment is too small; that the assessments are unequal; that the opening of the street is not demanded by any public necessity; that the commission is not a legally-constituted body; that, in effect, this action amounted to a virtual confiscation of their property.

Messrs. Roberts, Shaw and several others addressed the Council in opposition to the opening of the street.

Councilman Rees then moved that the matter be deferred for one week, in order to give the property-owners an opportunity to ascertain if they can raise the money to pay the expenses incurred, and that if this is done the proceedings could be abandoned. A general discussion followed, when resulted in the motion being rejected, and the Council then proceeded with the hearing of protestants, after which Street Commissioner McIlmoil spoke at some leugth in defense of the commission.

The discussion continued until 4 o'clock, when, on motion of Councilman McGarry, action was deferred for one week to give the property-owners an opportunity to consult among themselves as to what they wanted done.

THE SENATORSHIP

The end nears. A solution of the Senatorial problem is at hand. The result sought for more than a week may be reached today. Our special dispatches from Sacramento this morning indicate that the adherents of De and will today unite upon the latter. Their combined strength will more than equal the highest vote yet received by Mr. Estee (37.) and make the success of the San Mateo statesman highly probable

Mr. De Young's forces adhered to his weaker rival, a candidate with only half his strength, Mr. De Young did a conception. manly and a magnanimous thing, which cannot fail to redound to his credit in future politics, whether or not he ever again aspires to the Senatorial honor. Should the journalist seek, two years hence, an election for the full term he may do so with bright prospects of success, for he has in the present contest made long strides in the direction of winning the popular as well as the legislative favor. has earned the good will of Mr. Felton and has strong following, and whether or not the latter proves successful in his contest for the short term, he can hardly do less than return the great service rendered him yesterday by the first journalist of the State

Next to its first choice among the candidates now before the Legislature, THE TIMES has no hesitation in declar-

The more his purposes, sentiments and methods in the pending contest have become known to us, the more fully have we became satisfied of his merit and his fitness for the Senator ship, an office which he would exalt and not debase. He has declared upon all occasions since the contest began hat he would neither seek nor accept the high place by improper means, that he would not purchase nor permit the purchase of the seat, but on the contrary, will spend money, if be, to detect and punneed bribe-givers and bribe-takers, wherever found. Upon the ever-present question corporations and corporation influence, we have satisfied ourselves Mr. Felton is not unsound. While not a demagogue or a ranter he has shown himself fair and free, and he has in Congress by no means served the will or obeyed the behests of the great corporation which has already one Senator in Congress, to serve it in preference to the State. ASSEMBLYMAN MARION. In a recent issue of THE TIMES We took occasion to refer to some warm commendatory remarks about Assemblyman Marion, appearing in letters Young and Felton have come together from Sacramento to the Evening Express, signed "Los Angeles." These comments were made under the im-pression that the letters in question were written by Capt. Marion himself.

We have since been informed that, while Capt. Marion did at first write the "Los Angeles" correspondence, him with Grant-like tenscity until he his duties in the Legislature prevented himself said the word and released him from continuing the contributions. them from their voluntary pledges. While these highly eulogistic notice of our Los Angeles Representative might have been the legitimate subject of good-natured sarcasm had they been written or inspired by the object of them himself, the fact that they emanate from another person, as we are assured they do, relieves them of the charge of egotism, and makes them merely a legitimate tribute to the industry and loyalty of a Representative against whose conduct THE TIMES nor the citizens of Los Angeles, so far as we are aware, have any cause for complaint.

THE RETURN OF THE BANNER

The Oakland Times, just received, gives a full account of the reception of the banner from Los Angeles county by the Republicans of Alameda county In another column we reproduce a condensed report of the interesting affair. The exchange of good fellowship between the two leading Republican counties was most encouraging.

As we gather from other Gen. Barnes, in his speech, made some pointed references to Senator Stanford which the Oakland Times does not reproduce. His remarks were loudly ap plauded, while the reference of Senator Carpenter to Mr. Stanford was coldly received. This is a political straw which is worth noting.

The Oakland Times thus comments editorially on the affair:

The Republicans of Oakland did them-selves credit last night in the reception of the banner-bearers from Los Angeles. The occasion of all this entertaining is a matter which the Times does not particularly care to enter—but it is a good thing for the gen-temen of the two cities of California that Are recognized as distinctly rivels in all erience and mark, a Republican with the heartbeat of a patriot, a Caliroinan of broad and generous imrulses, full of knowledge of her wants, evoted to her welfare and jealous of e made one of her Senators in the rouncils of the Republic he may be deroined and mark, a Republican with a consider in that way, and a feeling of friendiness and of pride in the whole grand State serves very materially to temper the rivalry.

Distinguished strangers within the gates are the guests of the entire city, regardless of political affiliations.

THE NEW ORLEANS TRAGEDY The public mind seems to be at sea shout the lynching of the members of the Mafia at New Orleans. It is wellnigh certain that many of the Italians were assassins who deserved to be judicially hanged, but escaped a righteous fate through the scoundrelism of American tribunals. What then? Are we, Americans, ready to confess that we cannot con trol our own vicious system of laws and juries-that we cannot prevent perjury by our own citizens, but find it easier to shoot a dozen foreign assassing trembling like rats cornered in a pit? Is the United States ready to assu from an upper window, shouted t you, but I can make faces at your little sisters." And are we sure that it is so supremely safe to violate international law, and invite the contempt and fierce anger of foreign nations? HAWAII.

Claus Spreckles, who probably know more about the subject than any other Amelican, has the following to say regarding Hawaii's future in the North American Review for March:

The death of King Kalakaua has aroused public interest in Hawaiian affairs. It was generally underatood that the prime object of Kalakaua's visit to this country was to promote closer relations with the United States. His death while negotiations were pending was somewhat unfortunate, because it is not absolutely certain that the policy of the Hawaiian government under his successor will run on precisely the same lines. But while there is room for doubt on this head, there is also a reasonable probability that Kalakaua's death will not materially change the drift of public policy. The Hawaiian Islands are American in sentiment and sympathy. Visitors probability that Kalakaua's death will not materially change the drift of public policy. The Hawaiian Islands are American in sentiment and sympathy. Visitors from the United States to Honoluu feel themselves at home the moment they land from the steamer. There is nothing in the social conditions to remind them them that they are on foreign soil. Hotels and stores are conducted on the American plan. American money is the circulating medium. Outdoor sports and popular amusements are fashloned on the American pattern and the Fourth of July is a national holiday. Conversely, when a Hawaiian resident visits America, he finds himsif at home in San Francisco or anywhere else in the Urited States. The native Hawaiian people look to America, as their best friend. They received their civilization from it, and they have constant intercourse with it. In other words, they know that their material prosperity depends upon the friendship of the United States. But they are impressionable and easily led. This is the weak point in Hawaiian affairs. It has been the cause of the recent trouble in the islands, and will continue to be a source of uncertainty and weakness while the Hawaiian natives continue to be infinenced by their old traditions and customs.

We are now at a turning point in our career. The reaction from the boom has gone to its full extent and has done its worst. We are beginning to get on our feet again. It is understood in the East, among the wellinformed, that Los Angeles is not one of those real estate boom towns that came and went like mushrooms. Let us take advantage of this opportunity to show the people of the East what we can produce. This advertising is not likely to cost us a cent. If it did, we

GOV. MARKHAM'S LETTER. SACRAMENTO, March 14. To the Republican Alliance at Oakland, Cal.—GENTLEMEN: I regret exceedingly my inability to be present tonight, in accordance ont tonight, in vitation, for I am well aware that I forego a very great pleasure. I recollect well the occasion of the presentation of the banner to Los Angeles county, and that the happiness of Los Angeles in that the happiness of Los Angeles in verseded by receiving it, was only exceeded the happiness of Alameda the happiness of Alameda in presenting it. In my address to the citizens of Oakland during the campaign, I said if the banner was returned to you, I would see that a gold fringe was placed upon it. A friend of mine wrote te one of your Senators that such was never that such was returned to the second of the s Senators that such was my intention Senators that such was my intention, and they immediately requested me not to do so, as they desired the banner returned to them exactly in the condition in which they had delivered it. While it would give me great pleasure to carry out my original intention, I am conscious of the fact that no glitter of gold could add to the luster which the Republicans of Alameda county contributed to this magmeda county contributed to this mag-nificent banner in the campaign of 1890; and in deference to their wishes. I have not had the change made. The banner, however, is rightly yours. Your spiendid majority for the ticket last fall was a surprise to almost everyone in the State, outside last fail was a surprise to almost everyone in the State, outside of your own county, and entitles you to become the banner Republican county of California. I warn you, however, to look well to your charge. Los Angeles is growing very rapidly, and I am firm in the belief that the banner will remain with you only temporarily. I am main with you only temporarily. I am very much pleased with this friendly rivalry, and believe that it is produc-

I thank you very heartily for your cordial invitation, and in closing propose to you a toast: "Alameda and Los Angeles counties good for 7000 majority in 1892." Very truly yours,

This closed the exercises in the hall, and the Alliance and its invited guests ad-journed to the banquet at the Dietz' Opera House.

THE BANQUET. It was in the banquet hall, Dietz Opera House, that the decorators had outdone themselves, the decorations in the theater, in fact, being confined to draping the stage and house with flags.

In the Opera House there were flags and flowers in profusion. The stage was set with a battle scene, a drummer in front of this a bewildering mass of callas and ferns and palms. The boxes in front of this a bewildering mass of callas and ferns and palms. The boxes were decorated also, over one being a banner with the legend: "Defeated, but Not Conquered. November, 1888. The west wall of the auditorium bore a picture typical of the Alliance, and a streamer with the motto "The Alliance Ticket Is a Straight Republican ance Ticket Is a Straight Republican Ticket," while on the east wall was a companion picture, and besides a superb painting of Harrison and Morton. Running along the balcony railing were banners also, inscribed as follows: "McKenna. Well Done Good and Faithful Servant. Enter Now Upon Your Fourth Term." The tables, beautifully decorated, prered the entire auditorium floor, and the banquet was in James Vance's best style.

After the elaborate menu had been discussed and the wine had gone around and around the proposing toasts began. The first was:

"The Republican party and present iministration." Gen. W. H. L. administration." British free trade. Between Republican honesty and Democratic wild cat. We were victorious then. You have been victorious now. It is a struggle between the counties of Los Angeles and Alameda as to which shall carry the banner of Republicanism. I remember when we had our old struggle with this same rebel Democracy that we now see allied with the farmers to undo our work at that time. I have now see allied with the farmers to undo our work at that time. I have no objection to farmers. I want them to have all that is theirs—but when they want everything that is in sight, I draw the line. I look to see this holy Alliance broken. It is a craze, and, Barnes spoke as follows:

Mr. Barnes then touched upon the Senatorial question, jocularly alluding to Mr. Blanchard of El Dorado, who was present, and ex-Gov. Perkins.

He had been mentioned himself, which is understood to be the announcement of his candidacy. In conclusion, he gave the sentiment:

COLLECTOR T. G. PHELPS. Collector Phelps of San Francisco re plied to the toast: "The National Administration," paying elegant tribute to President Harrison and the gentle-men of his Cabinet. He touched, in passing, upon the death of Secretary Windom, and spoke eloquently of the virtues of the dead and gone John F. Swift—his neighbor and friend. As for the rest, Mr. Phelpa's speech was a defense of the McKinley bill and of the Republican policies in general.

Following Mr. Phelps's speech, a

The German quartette then sang, and George C. Perkins responded to "The Oakland Republican Alliance."

They will form a Farmers' Alliance he said, after awhile, and they will marshal the Republican party to vicmarshal the Republican party to vic-tory in Alameda county. By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW ORLEANS, March 16.—[By the Associated Press. | In Father Manorita's statement yesterday he said he was sure the letter he received was from the Provenzano faction of the Mafia. This statement Joseph Provenzano this morning most emphati cally denied. He said his first impulse was to have Father Manorita arrested, and he consulted Chief Gastern regarding the matter, and was advised to make a public statement con-cerning it, as he thought it would do more good. Provenzano says he has not been connected with the Mafia in any manner. On the contrary he has been the object of their enmity.

not been connected with the Mafis in any manner. On the contrary he has been the object of their enmity.

"About five years ago," says Provendano, "the Mafis sent me several letters threatening to kill myself and my brothers unless we gave the society 31000. We did not respond, and Jim Caruso shortly afterward came to me and said he belonged to the society and and that we had better pay the money. He said that I could do so by going to the old lake and bandaging my head in a red handkerchief and leaving the money on a stump in the swamp near by. I was then to go about my busines and they would get the money. I then went to some of my friends, Jung Davy, Pat Meally and Ralph Morgan, being among the number, and they said not to pay it; that they would go with me in a wagon and see who was there to receive it. Jim Caruso, who was along, said this would not do. 'If you go with a crowd no one will appear.' I then dropped the matter, and told Caruso to have nothing more to do with the society, to give up his fruit stand in the French market and come on the levee, and we would make him a free man. He said he would do so, as he was tired of the Mafis, having recently been selected on a committee to kill some one."

Provenzano added that Caruso went to the Italian Church and took an oath to quit the Mafis. He said Charlie Matranga was chief of the Mafia gang, and that its object was to kill those who were against it. When a victim was selected he was invited to dinner after which he was done up. Provezano thinks one Die Carlo gave Father Man-

THEY WERE DISCHARGED.

The Ending of a Very Peculiar For-Munday, Barnes and Richardson, the three young Englishmen arrested some time ago on the complaint of another Eng-lishman named Walker, charged with for-sory were discharged by Justice Owen. gery, were discharged by Justice Owens yesterday, there being no evidence on which to convict.

The case is one of the most peculiar that which to convict.

The case is one of the most peculiar that ever came into a court. Walker loaned Munday some $300 on a note purporting to have been signed by Munday, with Mabey and Williamson, two other Englishmen, as sureties. Walker became suspicious about the note and endeavored to ascertain whether the signatures of Mabey and Williamson were genuine. These men would not say positively that they had signed the note, nor would they specifically denyit. In the meantime, rumors increased that the names attached to the note were forgeries, and Walker, to secure the money he had sidvanced, took a bill of sale of certain articles belonging to the young men. He then, at their request, destroyed rhe mote, which was burned, one of the yogning men setting it on fire which walker held it in his hand, to show that there was no deception. Walker then sent a man to take possession of the property, when the young men refused to give it up. Walker was thus out his money and had not any to show that any of the men were indebted to him. He could get no satisfaction of the property of a complaint charging the trio with forgery. They came up for examination, when had young men was because they wanted to gain time, as Munday was expecting money from England and would make it good.

Of course, on the showing Justice Owens could do nothing but discharge the defendants.

In the meantime Walker is out his $300, without any prospect of ever getting it unless the young men choose to pay it. He is said to be a hard-working young man of good habits, who has built up a good business as a baker in the southern part of the city, but was so broken up over the outceme of the case that he has sold out his bakery and says he intends to return to England.

It HAS PASSED.

MR. COE QUITS TOWN.

The Foreman of the Oak Knoll Ranch Peparts

ATTWO O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING

Some People Would Like to Know Where He Is-Miss Bierer's Lecture-Personal Notes

Last Friday morning at 2 o'clock, Geo. Coe, who for some time past has been foreman at the big Oak Knoll ranch, southeast of town, awakened his wife and told her that he was go ing to leave her. Then he coolly dressed, despite her most earnest entreaties, left the house, roused up one of the workmen to saddle a horse, and made off.

And that was the last seen of Mr. Coe since Friday morning. His departure seems to have been premeditated and his plan of action systematically mapped out. Business troubles seem to be at the bottom of the affair. It is currently reported that Coe owes a number of small bills about town, and had not the wherewithal to meet them. The owners of the ranch, it seems, are not out much and will not endeavor to look up the missing man. Lately Coe formed a partnership with a young man named Payton to run a butcher shop on Colorado street. Yesterday Mr. Payton told The Times reporter that Coe had never come to time with his share of the cash, and that on the evening prior to his departure he came to the shop and endeavored to borrow And that was the last seen of Mr. Coe some cash, but without success.

Coe is well known about town and his departure created considerable surprise. His family consists of a wife and two children. No one about here has any knowledge of his present whereabouts.

A LECTURE TO LADIES. How to Grow Healthy—A Man Invited Out.

Miss Helen Bierer of Chicago spoke in Williams' Hall yesterday afternoon on "Good Health and a Clear Complexion.' The lecture was for the benefit of All Saint's Episcopal church organ fund. About sixty ladies were One bold, bad man also walked in and, upon invitation, walked out without even being allowed to seat

The speaker wore a lavender gown trimmed with white lace, cut decoileté. She was introduced by Mrs. Bangs and began by speaking of the growing tendency of the American girl toward participating in general athletics, such as swimming, cycling, bowling and tennis. A girl to be popular nowadays must be hardy and muscular to be in the swim. She must be ready to ride, walk and enter into a man's pleasure, and above all things to be easily pleased. All this is impossible with weakness or ill-health. Health, therefore, is of paramount

Health, therefore, is of paramount mportance, even to the would-be soimportance, even to the would-be so-ciety favorite. Exercise properly taken will invariably produce good health in women. Comparisons were drawn between the physical conditions of people employed in different occupa-tions. Calisthenics was recommended as a sure cure for dyspepsia. Exercise is the only means by which muscular development can be attained. Good breathing is the first necessity.

Good breathing is the first necessity. Good breathing is the first necessity. Good walking and correct standing are other necessities. Miss Bierer did not advocate either dumb-bells or Indian clubs, because while they strengthen the muscles they do not give the arm that appearance of delicate beauty desired. Dict is the principal thing to be considered. In this connection some hints were given for reducing or

Examples of different styles of bad walking were illustrated. Recipes for preventing wrinkles and beautifying the complexion were given. The speaker advocated the extensive use of salt at the toilet table and bath. She also touched on the disgusting practice of gum chewing, which she said produces dyspepsia. She did not condemn tight lacing; she simply said it was out of fashion, which she thought was sufficient.

Miss Bierer is hardly as graceful or large with the fact that a popular vote is being cast at the citrus fair for the best exhibit and cast their ballots in favor of the big pyramid. Dollars to doughnuts the result will put Pasadena higher than the fifth place.

Miss Bierer is hardly as graceful or pleasing in her manner or address as Mrs. Clara Holbrook Smith, who lately gave a similar lecture here, but she is a far more thoroughly developed woman and a better example of the beautifying results of the Delsarte system.

ROADS BUILT BY UNCLE SAM.

Several Great Highways Constructed by the United States Government. The impression seems to preval generally that the present agitation in favor of good roads well kept is something entirely new to the United States. That this idea is a mistake is shown by the following extracts from an article by Gath in The Cincinnati Enquirer:

Thomas Jefferson suggested the employment of the treasury surplus for extended public improvements. Senator Pope, of Kentucky, was the introducer in 1810 of a resolution to authorize the government to take half the stock in any turnpike roads which might be incorporated by any of the states, and especially between the heads of the eastern navigable rivers and the nearest western waters, and also the links in a great publie highway from Maine to Georgia, "and generally to the stock of all com-panies which might be approved by con-dustrious communities. Years ago there gress for * * * opening turnpilte roads." The bill of Senator Pope was amended by Senator Smith, of Maryland, to increase the national subscription to these undertakings from one-half to two-thirds. The bill was then postponed to the next session of congress. John Pope died in 1842. He was governor of the territory of Arkansas six years under Andrew Jackson. He deserves recognition as the boldest and ear-liest proposer of a comprehensive scheme of internal improvements.

At the same time Peter B. Porter, of Niagara Falls, introduced into congress a similar bill, and supported it by an elaborate speech.

The only practical result of these joint endeavors was an appropriation of $60,000 for the national turnpike road from Cumberland to Wheeling in the year 1810. Before all those people came upon the stage Alexander Hamilton, as secretary of the treasury, had reported to congress tem of internal improvements

Again, in Hamilton's examination bearing date of December, 1801, he says: "The improvement of the communi-cations between the different parts of our country is an object well worthy of the national purse."

In Hamilton's letter to Dayton, dated 1799, he says: "To offset the Virginia factionists the improvement of our com-munications, as well interiorly as coastwise by turnpike roads, should begin.

The improvement of the roads would be a measure universally popular. None can be more so. For this purpose a regular plan should be adouted example. tensive with the Union, to be successively executed, and a fund should be appropriated sufficient for the basis of a loan of $1,000,000. The future from tolls would more than reimburse the expense and further utility would be promoted in every direction.' Gen. Washington wrote to Patrick Henry in 1785: "Our roads should be straightened, shortened and established by law, and the power of county courts to alter them should be with rawn."

A proposition was made to extend the National road from Vandalia, Ills., to the Mississippi river, and thence to Jefferson City, Mo., which Mr. Adams said had more sense than all the work of that session of congress.

The cost of the National or Cumber-

Increase of the National or Cumber-land road from Cumberland, Md., to Uniontown, Pa., sixty-one miles, was $795,000, or $9,700 per mile, across the Allegheny mountains. The western sec-tion had cost up to 1819 about $17,000 a mile, or $616.000 for thirty-six miles, The military opened the great road from Nashville to New Orleans in 1819, reducing the distance 300 miles. same year the military road from Detroit to the Miami rapids was made, reaching the Black swamp.

Gen. Jackson opened the great military road from Florence, Ala., to New Or-road at Wheeling supported seventeen steamboats; the steamboat clearances were 738 during the year. Braddock's original road followed an tract with the state of Ohio, the state agreeing not to tax government sales of land in Ohio for five years after sale; 2 per cent. of the sales were to be applied per cent. of the saies were to be applied to making a road from the Atlantic nav-igable waters to the lower Ohio. This promise the government has not kept, and merely built from Cumberland, Md.

Congress passed the act March 29, 1806.
The road commissioners, Eli Williams and Thomas Moore, of Maryland, and Joseph Kerr, of Ohio, located the road in 1806, taking Braddock's route to Gist's, and Burd's route to Brownsville. By 1807 the site had been chosen from Cumberland to Sandy Hollow, the east-cumberland to Sanay Indiow, the eastern division. The remainder of the western division to Wheeling was not fully settled till about 1817.

The road was 66 feet wide; the roadbed from 30 to 34 feet. It was paved 20 feet wide, 18 inches deep in the middle, 12 inches at the sides.

The lower stratum was a pavement of stone, closely set vertically, covered with broken stones to pass through a seven inch ring, and then six inches of the top laid with stones passing through a three inch ring. The highest grade of the eastern division is 5 degs.; of the western division, 4½ degs.

In 1832-38 the road was thoroughly received by the Livited States scale.

repaired by the United States, and sur-rendered as a toll road to the states through which it passed.

In 1788 Col. Thurber, of the British army, built a road from the Cumber-land valley to Pittsburg, In 1820, says Hildreth, "the Cumber-land road had been completed to Wheeling at an expense of about $1,700,000."

Many petitions had been presented for its continuance westward, and $10,000 was appropriated for a survey, but with that this was to be no pledge for any further expense. Strictly Trabful.

It was in a crowded Columbus avenue car that the following laconic conversation occurred, which caused a brisk laugh, although the gentleman in the case had no intention whatever of being "funny." He got up and offered his seat to a lady who was standing. "Don't rise!" said she. "But I have!" said he.— Boston Times.

The Influence of a Tramp.

The president of a Delaware savings bank refused to give a tramp ten cents, and the tramp went about hinting that the bank was unsafe, and in twenty-four hours there was a run which took out many thousand dollars, but fortunately not enough to occasion any inconveni-ence to the bank.—Detroit Free Press.

Drainage. How few people realize the results of extensive drainage, such as a highly civextensive drainage, such as a nighty civilized country presents. No inconsiderable changes are wrought by artificial drainage. Much of surface water, instead of being left to form marshes, saturate the soil or be taken up by evaporation, is carried away underground through drain pipes. Consequently the air is not so moist as formerly, and the soil, instead of being constantly chilled by evaporation, is rendered warm and genial. This result has been particu-larly noticed in England and Scotland, where very extensive areas have been artificially drained.

Holland has been, one might say, reclaimed from the sea. The water has been dyked out, and many parts of the country that were the bottom of the sea are now dry land, and though below se were along the lower banks of the Mississippi "drowned lads," subject to over flow and uninhabitable, covering an area larger than the state of New by means of levees. Thus, by man's in genuity, are the surface, climate and general physical condition of the earth being changed.—New York Ledger.

CALIFORNIA CLIMATE. An Eastern Visitor Wishes he Had

More of It. United States Marshal George Gard has received a letter from a friend who was here with the Immigration Committee of Con-gress which was here in December last in-vestigating the subject of Chinese immi gration, in which the gentleman writes a follows: "Since our committee returned from California I have spent about three-fourths of my time wading through mud and slush. The other fourth has been deand slush. The other fourth has been devoted to thawing out frozen feet and dodging bilzzards. I have got pretty hearly tired of it and in this typical March afternoon, with the wind blowing a hurricane from across the lake and the thermometer on the drop at an alarming rate, I cannot help thinking of the orange groves and vineyards of California." In closing the gentleman says: "I like climate, and your people cannot be duplicated anywhere on earth."

Dyspepsia, indigestion, sick headache and that tired feeling are cured by Hood's Sar-saparilla, which tones the stomach, pro-motes healthy digestion, creates an appe-tite, cures sick headache and builds up the whole system. Sold by all druggists 100

DISEASES OF MEN.

Treatment and Cure by an Entirely New and Successful Method.

Scientific investigation, supplemented by experience, has shown that Urinary Diseases are more prevalent and destructive to life, health and happiness than any other class known to the medical fraternity. They are not confined to the low and degraded portions of humanity, as many suppose, but are found among the pure in heart, the innocent, the truly pious and the wealthy.

Many of them are transmitted from parent to child, from generation to generation. Thousands of people suffer untold agonies from their ravaging effects, and meet an early and untimely death, often ignorant of the and untimely death, often ignorant of the cause. Though transmitted innocently, the effects of these diseases are no less terrible. It is a sad truth that the innocent are often greater sufferers than the guilty.

Of all the organs of the body few are more important or worthy of attention than those engaged in the urinary functions. In perfect health, that great blessing which so few en-joy—one will scarcely direct a moment's thought to these important organs, and at the first unpleasant symptom good advice, such as may easily be obtained, should be immediately solicited.

Among the chief and most common of diseases is Seminsi Weakness and Nervous Debitity (or loss of nerve power) due to masturbation and venial excesses. Thousands of young, middle-aged and old men suffer with nervous diseases for years, and may be ignorabled the cause. nervous diseases for years, and may be ignor-ant of the cause when a little timely advice would make life's pathway full of cheer and happiness. When the first symptoms of semi-inal weakness manifest themselves, the suf-erer is noticed to become dull and morose, and is troubled with indigestion though the appetite may remain good. But the strength vanishes and the patient grows this. He be-comes indoient and debilitated, and loss of memory and all vigor of the savual organ comes indolent and debilitated, and loss of memory and all vigor of the sexual organs may follow. In time he may fall into a com-plete state of impotence—total loss of sexual power. Among its terrible effects may be mentioned weakness of the memory, contumentioned weakness of the memory, confu-sion of ideas, nervousness, deepondency and general weakness. It needs no mirror; it re-flectsitself. The pale face, the sunken eye, the downoast countenance, the stooping, aged form, all serve to announce the victim's troubles. It seldom kills of itself, but it opens the door to other diseases, such as consump-tion and diseases of the heart. The unfortu-late suffers cannot sleep. In that inversednate sufferer cannot sleep. In that intermediate state between life and death intended for the recuperation of the mind and body, he can know no rest for his dreams are dark and

This affliction may be the consequence of self-abuse or the result of excesses in mature years. As "man is but a bundle of habits," how essential that he should start right in life, that his mind should be full of sublime thoughts and pure conceptions.
